Overview of the Nanjing Center

The Nanjing Center is an initiative approved by the AmCham Shanghai Board of Governors in January 2016. The goal of the Center is to promote the interests of U.S. business in Nanjing and is managed by the American Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai Yangtze River Delta Network.

The Center supports U.S. businesses by running programs and events that provide business information, relationship building opportunities and policy advocacy. The Center is supported by a Nanjing Center Advisory Council.

The Nanjing Center Advisory Council is comprised of volunteer members from U.S. businesses in Nanjing. The Council provides guidance for the development of programs and services for the U.S. business community in Nanjing.
